

THE BOX DIFFERENCE

Why BOX is the Industry's Best Network for Energy Professionals

There's a reason BOX has become the largest network of energy agents, brokerages, and consulting firms in North America. BOX is able to provide our energy partners an unparalleled opportunity to achieve success in their business. Whether you're just starting out or you work with a team of consultants, BOX provides all the support you need to take your business to the next level.

Benefits of Working with BOX

Earn Higher Commissions

BOX consultants and broker partners can earn 25-50% higher commissions than with any other broker partner.

Access All Major Suppliers

BOX partners gain access to every major energy supplier, guaranteeing the lowest energy prices for your customers.

Expand To All Markets

Marketing is essential for getting your business noticed and attracting new customers.

World-Class Business Support

Our partners are supported by a team of experienced energy professionals to take a range of administrative tasks off your plate so you can spend more time closing deals.

Get Paid Your Way

BOX provides flexible payment plans that allow you to get your commissions when you need them most.

Cutting-Edge Proprietary Technology

Gain access to powerful software for real-time pricing from suppliers, contract and renewal automation, commissions management, and efficient CRM tools.

Develop Your Skills

We invest in our partners by consistently providing materials to help enhance your skills, including weekly webinars and industry updates.

Structuring Desk

We'll do all the heavy lifting in providing the best product structure and analysis for your large C&I customers.
